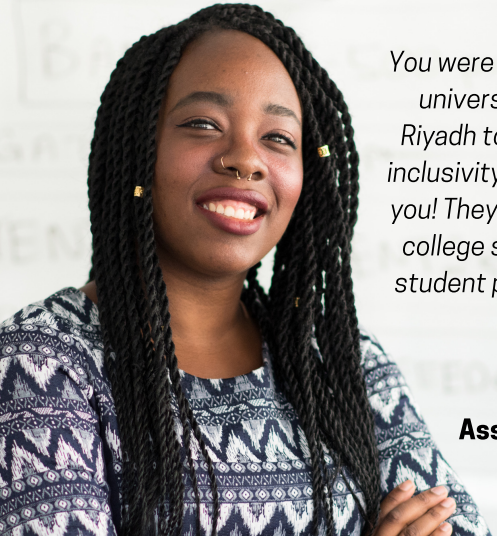
Diversity and Inclusion for Millennials



You were incredible! What an opportunity for our university Dublin City University students in Riyadh to hear about female entrepreneurship, inclusivity and diversity. Very inspirational. Thank you! They LOVED it! They already are setting up a college society for women in tech! Reading my student portfolios and they all are writing about you!

Workplace Diversity and Intercultural Engagement

Must say Furkan Karayel is one of the most interesting and inspirational people I've met in a long while. A fantastic ambassador and advocate for diversity and inclusion in Ireland and beyond. Insightful and articulate on a range of topics from D&I, education, start up culture and technology to public speaking.
